EDITORIAL

The New Year promises many exciting developments for International Journal of Pharmacy. I am pleased to introduce IJP as the most highly rated peer-reviewed research journal in pharmaceutical sciences category that publishes the latest research works relevant to pharmacy and other allied sciences. I am pleased to announce that during the year of 2019, all issues of volume 9 were published online well within schedule and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

The Journal aims to flourish and to maintain the standards in research on how drug action may be optimized by new technologies, also provide a platform and opportunities to present evidence based medical and analytical assessment of research, and probably allow researchers, students, teachers and health care professionals to enhance patient care.

All published articles in this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, Global Impact Factor (GIF), General Foundation for Medical Education and Research, DRJI, Scientific journal impact factor (SJIF), Info base index, Eurasian scientific journal index (ESJI), Hinari Research in Health, International Committee of Medical Journals Editors (ICMJE), Cosmos impact factor, Open Academics Journal Index (OAJI), I2OR, EBSCO, International Innovative Journal Impact Factor (IJIF), Root Indexing, Scientific Indexing Services (SIS). The journal is now getting indexed in different academic forums. All these are promising signs.

On behalf of the Board of the IJP and my co-editors, I am glad to present the successful journey of the journal upon the completion of nine years milestone of establishment in 2019. During the year 2019, many articles were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format. Then accepted articles were subjected to the peer- review process and finally 20 were accepted & published in journal. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

During the calendar year 2019, reputed Editors and qualified Reviewers joined the board of IJP and contributed their valuable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles, and their valuable reviewer comments will beneficial to publish quality of article in the Journal. Congratulations to all of our Editorial Board members, reviewers, authors and readers for achieving this distinction. Their valuable services towards publication of articles, and their valuable reviewer comments helped to publish quality article in the Journal.

Authors are cordially invited to submit their current research activities and outcomes in the form of any article type of science communication such as original research, review, expert opinion, commentary, short note communication to our Journal.

Manuscripts can be submitted online via Editorial Tracking System or as an E-mail attachment to the Editorial Office at pharma@peerreviewedjournals.com. IJP is using Online Review and Editorial Tracking Systems for quality review process and the authors can submit manuscripts and track their progress. I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of editors (Dr. Moawia Al-Tabakha, Yasser Saber, Amal Hegazi Elrefaei) and Reviewers (Derek Reichel, Wanmei Sunduring, Liu F, Sonia AC Carabineiro, Irfan Ali Mohammed, Portia V. Zoleta, Rajasekharreddy Pala, Jie Zhang, Indrasena Reddy, Sevgi Ergin, Yu Zhao) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of IJP in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of IJP, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of IJP and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 10 Issue 6 of IJP in scheduled time.
